Aurora police on Tuesday released video clips and still photos showing the March 22 fatal shootout between two officers and 36-year-old Santiago Calderon of Aurora. Here's what they say the video shows:

Bank ATM Camera:

9:45:42 — Calderon is seen running from an officer toward the white SUV in the parking lot where the exchange of shots takes place.

9:45:48 — The officer dives to the ground after Calderon again begins firing. Calderon is standing out of camera range.

9:45:53 — The officer and Calderon are exchanging gunshots.

9:46:05 — The gunshots have stopped and the two officers take cover behind the SUV.

Parking Lot Camera:

9:45:37 — Calderon is seen next to the white SUV at the top of the photo. An officer is seen next to the other vehicle as the two exchange gunfire.

9:45:45 — The second officer is shown on the left side of the screen where he also shoots at Calderon. Calderon attempts to flee on foot but collapses. The arrow is the approximate location of where Calderon collapses.

A third video, shot by a resident, shows some of the unfolding scene and the officers' initial response.
