

Police involved in shooting in Walton - Pharos-Tribune (Logansport, IN) - January 27, 2018

January 27, 2018 | Pharos-Tribune (Logansport, IN) | From staff reports

State police are investigating a fatal shooting involving county sheriff's personnel that happened around 4 a.m. Saturday in Walton.

No officers were injured, but a 45-year-old man is deceased after the early morning shooting.

According to a statement released by the Indiana State Police, Cass County Sheriff's Department deputies responded at about 4 a.m. to a 911 call of a man stabbing himself with a knife inside a Walton residence.

State police identified the man Saturday evening as William Pollard. The evening statement confirmed earlier reports that he was in the 600 block of Carol Drive.

After deputies arrived, the ISP statement read, there was an incident that caused police to fatally shoot Pollard.

The shooting remains under investigation.

Copyright 2018, Pharos-Tribune / Community Newspaper Holdings, Inc. (CNHI). All Rights Reserved.