FREMONT >> Authorities named a Hayward man Wednesday as the person who died in last week's confrontation with officers.

The Alameda County Sheriff's Office named Nathaniel Prasad, 18, as the man sought by police for felony warrants for illegal possession of a firearm and probation violation when undercover officers found him around 6:45 p.m. April 5 in a vehicle traveling northbound on Fremont Boulevard.

When officers tried to stop the vehicle, its driver complied and pulled over at Fremont Boulevard and Nicolet Avenue, but Prasad got out and ran toward a nearby gas station, police said.

Multiple police officers responded to the scene and fired at Prasad after he pointed a firearm in their direction and fired it at least once, police said.

Officers responded after Prasad fell, providing emergency care until Fremont fire department paramedics arrived, but he was pronounced dead at the scene. A revolver and expended casings were found at his side, police said.

Fremont police and the Alameda County district attorney's office are conducting separate and parallel investigations into the shooting.
