FULL TEXT

Authorities say officers shot and killed a man who fatally shot a police dog near a banquet hall in suburban Detroit. St. Clair Shores police responded Sunday night to a report of a man with a rifle outside Lakeland Manor, where there was a gathering of about 70 people. When K-9 officer Axe was sent to track a fleeing suspect, police said the man shot the dog with a handgun. Police say officers then fired, striking the man. The man and police dog were taken for treatment and both were later pronounced dead. The sheriff's office identified the man as 29-year-old Theoddeus Gray of Detroit.
