FOGELSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Authorities have released the name of a suspected shoplifter wearing a wig and a mask who was shot and killed by a state trooper in a Pennsylvania Walmart parking lot

The Lehigh County coroner's office said Friday that 26-year-old Aaron Ibrahim of Mertztown died of multiple gunshot wounds. A ruling on the manner of death is pending completion of the investigation.

State police said employees of the Lower Macungie Township store called police shortly after 9 p.m. Wednesday. Capt. Richard D'Ambrosio said the suspect abandoned a full cart and fled as a trooper arrived, then pulled a gun and fired without hitting anyone.

D'Ambrosio said he got in his vehicle and pointed the handgun at the trooper, who fired, striking him about seven times. A loaded gun was recovered."
